Project:

Raising the roof

Subject:

Facilities and building improvements

Location:

Robin Hood’s Bay, North Yorkshire

Date of award:

January 2018

Overview:

Funding of £5,000 was awarded to the Fylingdales branch of the Women’s Institute to be used for the initial stage of its ‘Raising the Roof’ project to replace the roof of the branch’s building.

The re-roof, together with installation of insulation as well as improvements to the kitchen area and meeting rooms, has been completed to ensure that the building continues to provide safe and comfortable accommodation for existing and future users.
